闫冰：突然，一切清晰了起来

香格纳上海于 2021 年 9 月 4 日荣幸推出艺术家闫冰的个展《突然，一切清晰了起来》。这是闫冰在香格纳上海的首次个展，也是艺术家在香格纳画廊的第二次个展，将呈现其最新创作的一系列绘画作品。

有感于西北乡村影响至深的成长经验，闫冰的创作常常围绕最为质朴、基础的日常之物展开，并予以精神层面的提炼。展览标题摘自俄国作家契诃夫某篇小说中的一句话，而与这一奇妙又神秘的语句相呼应，本次展览缘起于艺术家的一趟旅行：今年春天，闫冰独自重新回到甘肃，在近五十天的田野行走中，他绕开现实意义上的故乡，从一条河流开始，由东往西，一路追溯自己早年的土地记忆，同时感知着内心的蜕变与释然，并由此引出了新的工作。

此次展览的作品以野菜和荒原为核心形象，相对以往创作中凝重深厚的气息，这一系列绘画更为轻盈辽阔，在微茫与广阔之间，试图塑造出有关生命的意志和尊严。正如闫冰所说，“我在故地走入了新的精神世界。新的感受和领悟带我逆向穿过了原有的认知，犹如从一片云影里走出。突然，一切清晰了起来。”

Yan Bing: Suddenly, Everything Became Clear

ShanghART Shanghai is pleased to announce that Yan Bing's solo exhibition "Suddenly, Everything Became Clear" opens on 4 September, 2021, featuring his latest series of works. This is the artist's first solo presentation at ShanghART Shanghai and the second solo show with the gallery.

Profoundly influenced by his growth experience in the rural area of northwestern China, Yan Bing's works revolve around the simplest daily objects and refine them on a spiritual level. The exhibition title comes from a novel by Russian writer Anton Chekhov; echoing this wonderful and mysterious sentence, the exhibition is inspired by a journey the artist went on this year. He returned to Gansu alone in spring but deliberately bypassed his hometown. During the nearly fifty days of field walk, Yan Bing started from a river, from east to west, tracing his early memories along the way. At the same time, the artist was perceiving his inner transformation and relief, which results in his new work.

Wild vegetables and wastelands are the core images in Yan's new body of work. Different from the dignified and gloomy atmosphere in his previous paintings, this series of works are made lighter and broader, aiming to shape the will and dignity of life in the dimness and broadness. As Yan Bing said, "I walked into a new spiritual world at my old haunt. The new feelings and insights took me through the original cognition backward, like walking out of a cloud shadow. Suddenly, everything became clear."
